

Introducing the League for Innovation Online Course Sharing Consortium

Now, more than ever, community colleges have an opportunity to solve pressing challenges and support student progress through course sharing, all while generating additional revenue.

WHAT IS THE LEAGUE FOR INNOVATION COURSE SHARING CONSORTIUM?

The League for Innovation Online Course Sharing Consortium, powered by Acadeum, enables community colleges to seamlessly share online courses to support students and solve institutional challenges.

Benefits of Course Sharing

- Credits count toward full-time status
- Financial aid and grades apply
- Students stay connected to their home institution
- Institutions innovate and collaborate

How Can Course Sharing Help Your Campus Community?

- Meet students' needs for specific courses when local course scheduling is a challenge
- Access courses to complete curricula for pathways, fields of study, and credentials
- Support new certificate and degree programs
- Redirect low-enrolled courses
- Manage teach-outs
- Fill open course seats

"We're pleased to offer this consortium as an option for our members who are seeking alternative, innovative approaches to student access, success, and completion."

— Cynthia Wilson, Vice President for Learning and Chief Impact Officer, League for Innovation in the Community College

All of these approaches generate new revenue streams for institutions.

Interested in learning more? Let's get in touch.

Hadra Brown

Regional Vice President for Academic Partnerships

Hadra@acadeum.com